TOPLESS WOMAN'S KINKY SEX ACT OUTSIDE WAITROSE

By KENNY PARKER

A MIDDLE-AGED woman who exposed her boobs as she pleased herself on a bench in broad daylight outside a Waitrose store is facing jail.

Beverley Dean, 54, was spotted by two financial advisors from their office window as she romped on a river bank and 'appeared to be filming herself'.

Police called to the scene near the upmarket store chain's Northwich branch in Cheshire searched Dean and discovered a hoard of sex toys in her handbag.

Iran: we are prepared to make nukes

IRAN can manufacture nuclear bombs but has not yet chosen whether to build one, a senior official bragged.

Kamal Kharrazi, a senior adviser to Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei (above), gave the warning, just a day after US President Biden ended his Middle East trip in which he vowed to stop Iran from "acquiring a nuclear weapon".

He told Al Jazeera TV that "Iran is on the nuclear threshold and this is not something secret", adding: "Iran has the technical means to produce a nuclear bomb but there has been no decision by Iran to build one."

Kharrazi said Iran has already been easily "able to enrich uranium up to 60%", far above a cap of 3.67% under Tehran's 2015 nuclear deal with world powers.

"And we can easily produce 90% enriched uranium," he added, referring to the percentage suitable for a nuclear bomb.

Migrant levels double in year

MORE than 15k migrants have arrived in the UK so far this year after crossing the English Channel.

Since the start of 2022, 15,107 people have reached the UK after navigating busy shipping lanes from France in small boats such as dinghies, according to provisional Government data.

This is almost double the amount recorded this time last year - 7,735.

More than 2,000 arrived in the UK between July 8 and July 18, the longest consecutive run of crossings to date this year.

Sport PRICE RISES: A MESSAGE FROM THE PUBLISHERS

LIKE all newspapers, your Midweek Sport, Sunday Sport and Weekend Sport have been hit by MASSIVE production costs.

Thanks to the international situation, the price of paper, ink, running our printing presses, and transporting papers to your newsagent have ROCKETED.

So that means, with a heavy heart, from today, we've had to increase the price of your Midweek Sport, Sunday Sport and Weekend Sport.

Believe us, folks, this is NOT something we want to do.

This is a matter of your fave papers SURVIVING.

With our print bill going through the roof, unless we put the price of your newspapers up, we will DISAPPEAR from the newsstands.

The price rises will ONLY be enough to cover our extra costs and will NOT make us ANY extra profit.

But be assured, we're straining every sinew to make sure your Midweek Sport, Sunday Sport and Weekend Sport remain the best value for money possible.

Unprecedented

We're sorry to ask you to pay more but, like everyone else, we are feeling the pinch in these unprecedented times.

Thanks for your understanding and continued support.

TOLD TO BASH ON WITH THE AGENDA: Johnson (left) at his final meeting which included members who told him to quit like Suella Braverman (right) and Nadhim Zahawi (below)

PM hosts final Cabinet – with ministers who pushed him out

BORIS Johnson has used his final Cabinet meeting to defend his record in office.

But two Cabinet members sitting at the table with him – Attorney General Suella Braverman and Chancellor Nadhim Zahawi – were among those who told the PM he had to go.

The Prime Minister used his final scheduled meeting in charge to defend his decision to commit to net zero carbon emissions by 2050 to tackle climate change was right, even though it's "unfashionable" – the target has been criticised

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

by some of his potential successors because of the economic risk.

Speaking as Westminster baked in a heatwave, Boris said: "With temperatures setting records in this country, who can doubt that we were right to be the first major economy to go for net zero?"

"And I know it may be sometimes unfashionable to say this now, but it is the right thing to do."

"If we're going to protect our planet and if we're going to do the right thing to tackle global warming, it's essential that we set that lead."

He added it also offers a "massive economic opportunity to transition to millions of clean, green technology driven jobs".

Parliament rises for the summer recess on Thursday, returning on September 5, when the next Tory leader is expected to be announced.

Mr Johnson said the Cabinet meeting was taking place a year on from England's "freedom day" when COVID restrictions were largely lifted.

The Prime Minister said: "I'm proud of what we did. Some, of course, I remember at the time, said that opening up in that way, opening up retail, opening up hospitality, opening up our country in the way that we did, they said it was reckless, they said it was going to be a threat to the world – I remember somebody saying.

"I've got to be honest, it wasn't an easy decision. We should never forget the suffering caused by that pandemic. And we grieve for the families of the many thousands of people whose lives were cut short."

"But I have to say, I do think it was the right decision."

The Prime Minister told his Cabinet to "bash on with our agenda".

Inflation will add £454 to grocery bill

SHOPPERS are set to see their grocery bills for the year leap by £454 after food and drink inflation hit the second-highest level on record.

Retail research firm Kantar revealed that grocery price inflation leapt to 9.9% over the four weeks to July 10, rising sharply from 8.3% in the previous month.

Researchers said they saw the fastest increases in prices for products such as dog food, butter and milk.

Supply chain issues and labour pressures have added to costs in food production, which are now being fed back to shoppers.

Fraser McKevitt, head of retail and consumer insight at Kantar, said he expects the overall record for grocery inflation to be surpassed "come August".

He added: "All this means that people will be feeling the pinch during our first restriction-free summer since 2019."

"Taking a barbecue as an example... buying burgers for al fresco dining would cost you 13% more than this time last year."

Pay drops at alarming rate

REGULAR pay is falling at the fastest rate since 2001 when taking into account rising prices, official figures show.

Between March and May, pay excluding bonuses was down 2.8% from a year earlier when adjusted for inflation – the fastest drop since records began.

Household budgets are being hit by soaring food, fuel and energy costs, with inflation now at a 40-year high.

Meanwhile, job vacancies continued to increase, although the rate is slowing.

Vacancies were up by 6,900 between April and June compared to the previous quarter, according to figures from the Office for National Statistics.

KEMI OUT IN LATEST TORY VOTE

KEMI Badenoch has been eliminated from the race to be the next Conservative leader, after the party's latest vote yesterday.

That leaves Rishi Sunak, Penny Mordaunt and Liz Truss in the running to be Tory boss and PM.

In yesterday's ballot, Mr Sunak got 118 votes, Ms Mordaunt 92 votes, Foreign Secretary Liz Truss 86 votes and Ms Badenoch (left), a former equalities minister, 59 votes.

In a series of votes, Conservative MPs are aiming to whittle the field down to two candidates before the Commons breaks for summer tomorrow.

The vote to decide the final two contenders is scheduled to take place today, and Tory party members will then pick the winner after a summer of campaigning by the two final contenders, with a result announced on September 5.

Tobias Ellwood was not allowed to vote yesterday after being suspended from the parliamentary party after he missed a vote of confidence in Boris Johnson's government.

Looks like she would need two, maybe three blokes to satisfy her hungers

I'D RIDE THAT UNTIL THEY COMPLAINED ABOUT THE SMELL

SUPERMODEL Heidi Klum took to Insta to share a "hot" topless image of herself, wearing just tiny bikini bottoms.

The 49-year-old scorcher covered her bosoms with her long hair while showing off her flat stomach in a high-stringed cossie.

"Boy it's hot," the German captioned the photo, which she shared with her 9.7 million followers.

A sloping lawn, green forest and mountain could be seen in the background of the pic.

It was a charming, relaxed picture of one of the world's most famous catwalk models.

Frenzy

But, inflamed by recent hot weather, Britain's sex trolls were driven into a frenzy by the innocent snap when the picture was published on the website of the hate-filled Daily Mail.

And one reader made a suggestion so vile, we hesitate to repeat it in a family newspaper.

So-called BigEars99 rasped unpleasantly: "I'd ride that like a rodeo star until the neighbours complained about the smell."

Another reader got himself hot under the collar, commenting: "Looks like she would need two, maybe three blokes to satisfy her hungers".

Yet another Mail troll hissed: "Absolutely drizzle in baby batter".

Baby batter is a vulgar euphemism for spunk.

A friend of the beauty said: "Humanity has taken a very dark turn. The angels weep."

Ukraine use gay porn to crush Russia

UKRAINE plans to take a huge swipe at Russia by removing a Catherine the Great Statue on their soil – and replacing it with one of a gay porn star!

A petition was created in the city of Odessa where there's a famous statue of 18th century Russian leader Catherine the Great.

The porn star bust they want to replace it with is of Billy Herrington, who starred in bumbing vids including HotMen, CoolBoyz and Conquered!

He was tragically killed in a car crash in 2018.

The petition blasts Catherine the Great as a "controversial historical figure whose actions caused great damage to Ukrainian statehood and culture", and demands that the statue be removed as a rebuke to Russian culture.

The petition, which needs approval from President Zelensky (above), has more than 25,000 signatures.

REGENT'S PARK, LONDON

BRITAIN'S summer heatwave reached a climax yesterday as records fell like ninepins and the country sizzled.

But stoic Brits ignored doom-laden predictions by climate change hotheads and instead stripped off to enjoy the tropical weather.

Across the country, ice cream vans sold out and cans of fizzy pop flew out of fridges as soon as shopkeepers could refill the shelves.

And every bit of spare ground was covered in sunbathing beauties, keen to make the most of the heatwave before an expected plunge in temperatures today.

Beaches across the country were packed as workers took a day off to enjoy the sun.

Siobhan Murphy, a lifeguard supervisor in Sefton, Merseyside, said they have been "extremely busy" in recent days and advised

By SUZIE SHELTON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

people not to swim anywhere apart from beaches with lifeguards.

Speaking at Crosby Lakeside Adventure Centre, she said: "We recommend you always go to a lifeguarded beach. The lifeguards are there to keep you safe, and we recommend that you swim between the red and yellow flags."

Shock

"It's the safest place to swim, there are no hazards and the lifeguards are always watching."

She added: "Around the UK the water is always cold, no matter how warm it is, like on a day like today, so we recommend if you fall into cold water float on your back like a starfish and allow that cold water shock to pass. It has been proven to save lives."

The sizzling started early with thermometers at Kew Gardens in London reaching 35.1C at 10am.

And the temperatures kept rising, with a record high of 39.1C (102.4F) reached in Charlwood, Surrey by midday before the mercury hit 40C for the first time ever with Heathrow recording 40.2C (104.4F).

That came after the hottest UK night EVER!

It was not all good news, though.

Railways ran a skeleton service as tracks reached a blistering 62C, leading to fear they would BUCKLE out of shape.

After the heat, now comes the rain. A yellow warning for thunder covering much of southern and eastern England has been issued by the Met Office for today.

SEX TOY LUBE GIRL FINGERED HERSELF OUTSIDE WAITROSE

By KENNY PARKER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MIDDLE-AGED woman who exposed her breasts and pleased herself as she sat on a bench in broad daylight outside a Waitrose store is facing jail.

Beverley Dean, 54, was spotted by two financial advisors from their office window as she romped on a river bank on a Friday afternoon with her blouse unbuttoned and jacket off.

Police called to the scene near the upmarket store chain's branch in Northwich, Cheshire, searched Dean and discovered a hoard of sex toys and lube in her handbag.

The two eye witnesses later said she appeared to be filming herself as she touched her genitals under her skirt during her public sex show but no footage was found on her mobile phone.

In front of Chester magistrates, Dean, from Rudheath, wept as she admitted outraging public decency, which has a maximum sentence of six months in jail.

Fingers

The incident occurred at 3.30pm on February 25 after Dean sat down on a bench overlooking the River Dane.

Miss Shannen Carey, prosecuting, said: "The defendant is seen to put her fingers in her mouth and then proceed to put them between her legs.

"She appeared to be masturbating. She had her mobile phone in her right hand and appeared to be filming herself performing the act.

"She stopped to smoke a cigarette and then continued to suck on her fingers and placed them between her legs.

"After she did this she stood up from the bench and both breasts were exposed. Her blouse was unbuttoned and her coat was hanging off.

"Officers were called and the defendant was arrested.

"Her property was searched and an assortment of sex toys and lubricants were found in the defendant's bag."

"It is aggravated that it was in a public place and there was the risk of the presence of children," the prosecutor said.

Dean had no previous convictions. Defence solicitor Shane O'Neill, said: "This is a matter that will need the intervention of the probation service.

"There is a guilty plea and there are no previous convictions.

"There's a suggestion that she was filming herself. But when the police took her phone there was nothing on it.

"We are not disputing that children may have been in the area but what she said is that there weren't any children in the area.

"She accepts responsibility for what she did."

The magistrates adjourned for probation reports. Dean was given unconditional bail until a sentencing hearing on August 12.

Choccy sales hit by cost of living

SWEET-toothed chocolate lovers are cutting back on their treats because of the cost of living crisis.

Consumers around the world are slashing their chocolate purchases due to its rising price.

Yank chocolate retail sales volumes have been "off and down" 2-3% over the last couple of months, as prices have risen in the "high single-digit, low double-digit" range, said Melissa Poole, Hershey's vice president of investor relations.

"We are expecting that as we move through the year we will see a bit of pull-back in volume," Ms Poole added.

Hershey previously noted it was expecting a "softening" in demand. In the later stages of the COVID pandemic, chocolate sales ballooned as shoppers maintained the stay-at-home habit of buying products and supplies in bulk.

Cruel jibes as Gemma plugs sex toys online

By HARPER HAYES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

GEMMA Collins has spoken candidly about her favourite sex toy and urges her fans to "talk about toys" and "not to be scared".

But not everyone is impressed.

The reality television star looked stunning as she spoke to her fans during the Instagram story.

The 41-year-old was glowing as she delivered her sex positive message to her 2.2 million followers.

Collins tagged condom brand Durex and used the hashtag "let's talk about toys, baby" and disclosed that it was an "ad" post.

Cruel

The star began with: "I just wanted to chat vibrators. As you know, it's my favourite conversation! This one here is my favourite toy. I've actually had a few of you message me, telling me you tried out vibrators for the first time."

She continued: "All about self love here, positive vibes only! I actually love this one because it's pink and fabulous, just like me." But people can be SO cruel and took to the internet to mock Gemma's important self-love advice.

One sneered: "Her favourite vibrator is the head of an old scud missile attached to a traction engine and don't forget hydraulic stirrups to get piggy akimbo".

Another mocked: "I never thought the day would arrive where I'd feel sorry for a sex toy." Yet another jeered: "The horror... the horror!"

Nut pulls gun on 'impolite' women

A MAN pulled a gun on two women – after they didn't thank him for holding the door at a shop.

Joshua Murray, 25, of New Haven, Connecticut, became incensed over the impolite act, police said.

"A witness reported that the suspect was upset that two women did not say thank you to him for holding a door open for them," cops said.

Murray allegedly whipped out a pistol then fled. He was picked up by officers nearby.

The suspect was charged with carrying an illegal gun, breaching the peace and interfering with a cop, the outlet said. He was held on $25,000 bail.

IT'S A NEW QUEEN RECORD!

QUEEN have made UK chart history by becoming the first act to sell seven million copies of one album.

Their first Greatest Hits collection, from 1981, is now owned by one in every four households in the UK, said the Official Charts Company.

The record, which features classic singles like We Will Rock You and Bohemian Rhapsody, has been a perennial best-seller for years. It recently spent its 1,000th week on the UK album chart.

Queen guitarist Brian May called the latest achievement "joyous news".

"No album has done this before in history," he said.

Shark fear stems from Jaws flick!

EXPERTS believe the classic 1975 film Jaws led to a generation of galeophobics – people with an irrational fear of SHARKS.

Psychologist Gabriella Hancock, who works with the Shark Lab at California State University Long Beach, reckons many people's fear of the giant fish is learned and influenced by popular media.

She said: "We're not innately afraid of sharks. Five-month-old babies were not afraid of sharks. So it appears as though our fear of them is learned and socially reinforced."

"What we find is that especially with popular media, it influences people's attitudes and perceptions such that it exaggerates the danger these animals pose."

Jaws author Peter Benchley admitted that he regretted writing it years later and became a conservationist.

He said: "Sharks don't target human beings, and they don't hold grudges."

"There is no such thing as a rogue shark which develops a taste for human flesh."

THE word "mortgage" comes from a French word that means "death contract".

Drive-thru ban for flash perv

A PERV has been banned from using drive-thrus on his own and must tell cops about any vehicle he gets behind the wheel of.

Martin Roberts, 40, of Rothwell in Northants, admitted indecent exposure after flashing from his car last year.

He was later sentenced to a community order by Northampton magistrates, who have now granted a six-year sexual harm prevention order against him.

Breaching the order is a separate crime which can be punished by up to five years in prison.

Under the order he is banned from driving any vehicle unless the model, colour and registration number is notified to the police within 24 hours.

He is also banned – if he is on his own in a vehicle – from engaging or attempting to engage with any unknown woman on a street or entering a drive-thru facility.

X-rated work, court finds

By MILES PLATTING
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A JURY have awarded an ex-porn star £1.4million in compo after she sued her local college for using her X-rated movies to discriminate against her.

In 2017, a then 30-year-old Nicole Gilliland enrolled in a nursing programme at Southwestern Oregon Community College (SWOCC).

The ex-adult star, who used the porn name Bree Barrett, had been working as a paramedic for several years.

Nicole claimed that she faced repeated harassment and the "hostile education environment" at the college.

It became so bad that Nicole revealed she suffered severe emotional distress.

She tried to sue SWOCC for violating a law which prohibits schools from sex-based discrimination.

Slammed

A nursing instructor and academic advisor at SWOCC began to discriminate against her and allegedly said: "Nursing is a profession for classy women. Unclassy women have no place in it."

But now the babe has won her case against the college, which, by using her x-rated work against her, were guilty of so-called "slut-shaming".

Nicole announced: "A couple of years ago an attorney took my discrimination case after HUNDREDS of others slammed their doors in my face."

"Today, a jury awarded us over 1.7 million dollars. Brandon Mark, thank you for believing in me and for believing in progress."

Attorney Mr Mark responded by stating: "You're the superstar. I played but a bit role."

"Thank you for letting me help you tell your story."

Walkers warned of naked trail w*inker

WALKERS at a popular forest trail have been warned about a man who runs nude out of the trees and furiously masturbates.

Cops received a report about a "very indecent act" on the Case Woodlot trail system in Aurora, Canada.

A female victim was sat on a bench along the trail when a naked man emerged from the forest and aggressively tugged his Johnson before fleeing back into the woods.

Police said in a statement: "York Regional Police is seeking public assistance to identify a man following an indecent act in a public trail system."

Investigators released a description, image, and video of the suspect and are appealing for the public's help to bring the forest fondler to justice.

He's described as being white, aged 55 to 65, clean-shaven, wearing nothing but a baseball hat and boots.

Does anyone else feel like their being watched?

Hubby hides botty bottle from missus

A MARRIED man is recovering after doctors removed a 7½ins water bottle from his rectum.

The suppository was discovered after the 50-year-old arrived at hospital with his wife, who grew concerned once he stopped eating and began to suffer from abdominal pain and constipation.

The man continued to successfully hide his painful secret right up until it was revealed to doctors via a CT scan.

According to an article in The Clinical Case Reports Journal, the man avoided mentioning he'd inserted the object up his arse due to "embarrassment".

The case study said he'd inserted the bottle with the bottom going in first, in order to use the top as a grip to pull it out.

But when the time came to do so, the bottle wound up trapped in the man's large intestine.

Doctors at the Imam Khomeini Hospital, in Sari, Iran, got the bottle out without causing damage to the intestine.

KELLY Brook says she would "love to have little pert French boobies" after branding her huge busters an "inconvenience".

The Heart Radio presenter, 42, said last week she's forced to wear "frumpy" underwear to accommodate her 34FFs, which gives her a "love/hate relationship" with her body.

The model said she often longs to wear "little strappy dresses" but her massive boobs are better suited to 1950s fashions.

She said: "I love my boobs, but I also don't like them. I have a love/hate relationship with all parts of my body. My boobs can be really inconvenient."

"I'd love to wear little strappy dresses. Some of the underwear I buy is really frumpy!"

"I would love to have little pert French boobies. Mine look good in a lovely 1950s dress though, so it just depends."

So what do YOU prefer – a pert teat, or a heavy dug you can get your dick between for a titwank?

Today Midweek Sport produces evidence that backs both sides of the argument...

WHAT started as a typical machismo-fuelled row in a Las Vegas nightclub ended with three people dead in the street – one shot, the other two burned alive in the wreckage of their own car...

SLAUGHTER IN SIN CITY

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS
AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

NOT everyone arrives in Las Vegas on a mission to let their hair down in the neon-lit party town's casinos and bars.

Mother-of-three Sandra Sutton-Wasmund was there on business, having travelled from her native Oregon.

Sandra, 48, co-owned a dress shop, The Dazzled Dame, and had been in Vegas to attend a trade show with her colleague Debbie Tvedt.

She was a woman beloved by her community, a devoted wife who'd fought breast cancer three times in 10 years.

But, as she climbed into a taxi being driven by 62-year-old

By JAMES REEVE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Michael Boldon, she had no idea it would be the last car ride either of them would ever take.

Over at the upscale Aria resort casino, two men began to row as they waited for their cars in the valet area of the building.

One of the men was self-confessed pimp and known criminal Ammar Harris. The other was aspiring rapper and dad-of-three Kenneth Cherry.

After a brief war of words, Kenneth, aka rapper Kenny Clutch, got into his high-powered Maserati and left, accompanied by a friend.

But, amid a screech of wheels and tyre smoke, Harris took off after him in his blacked-out Range Rover along with his girlfriend Yessenia Alfonso.

The two cars jockeyed for position on the highway before Harris wound down his window, pulled out a gun and began firing.

In the melee, Kenneth, 27, was fatally hit, while his pal suffered a gunshot wound to the arm.

The Maserati careered out of control. It sped through the intersection of the Las Vegas Strip and ploughed headlong into the taxi containing Michael and Sandra.

That junction is overlooked by some of Las Vegas's most famous landmarks, the Bellagio, Caesars Palace, Bally's and the Flamingo.

It's also just a stone's throw from where rapper Tupac Shakur was gunned down on the strip in 1995.

After the road inferno instigated by Harris in February 2013, jurors at his murder trial were shown gruesome images of Michael and Sandra's charred bodies.

Gangster

Meanwhile, the family of Kenneth Cherry – who had no criminal record – said that he was “no gangster”, he was just a musician who'd moved to Las Vegas from northern California in order to pursue his dreams as an artist.

Sandra's husband, James Wasmund, said he had not only lost his best friend and wife, but that their three children had lost their mother.

In a statement the family said: “Sandra's innocent and tragic loss will be felt by all those who knew and loved her and by the community at large.

“She always radiated compassion and made everyone a better person.

“Her family appreciates the outpouring of love and support and the respect for privacy shown throughout this very difficult time.”

Once the trial was finished and Harris had been handed his death sentence, James added: “We lost a year we don't even remember. Nobody's moved and nobody's matured.

“We're not doing well but we're trying. I just hope she's proud of us.”

In a truly harrowing, foreboding piece of synchronicity, one of Kenneth's lyrics had said: “One mistake changes lives, all in one night.”

His mother, Heidi Cherry, brought tears to the jury as she herself wept in the courtroom while trying to explain just what her son meant to her.

She said: “It's tearing me up. I can't sleep, I don't eat.

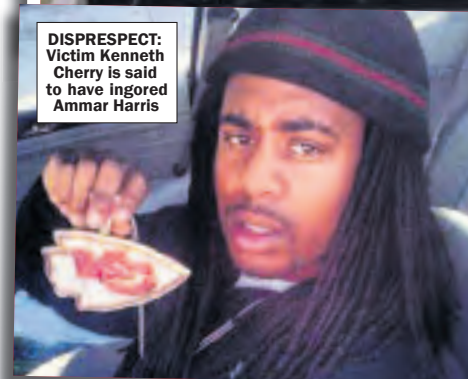

“I'm a nurse at a trauma centre so every time I hear a siren now... it just tears me up.”

Meanwhile Michael's sister, Carolyn Trimble, described her brother as a hard-working petrol head who loved watching IndyCar and NASCAR races.

She said: “Everybody just loved him. When that car hit that cab, Mike had to be in there talking and laughing.”

As for the irony that Michael was hit and killed by a gleaming sports car he would have loved to ogle,

DISRESPECT:
Victim Kenneth
Cherry is said to have ignored
Ammar Harris

Carolyn said: “He would be tickled. He'd have said, ‘Damn, of all things – a Maserati hit me, took me out like that’.

“I'm just happy he didn't suffer.”

In total, five other people were treated for injuries after the six-vehicle crash.

So what was it that had triggered the initial fight between Harris and Kenneth?

No-one knows for sure, but prosecutors suspect it was something as simple as the fact that Kenneth ignored Harris while they were together in the club – a slight which Harris found “disrespectful”.

Tragedy

In court, Chief Deputy District Attorney Pamela Weckerly told jurors: “When Harris feels disrespected, other people pay the consequences.

childhood as "miserable" and "suffocating".

He also told how he'd been sexually abused by an adult male cousin when he was just seven years old and raped when he was 11.

As a youth he was expelled from school. With no work experience, he inevitably drifted into crime.

In 2004, when he was 18, he was caught with a stolen firearm in South Carolina and spent 10 months in prison.

But there were more serious convictions. In June 2010 he raped a female victim, choking her before stealing $600 from her wallet.

He was found guilty of that before he even stood trial for the Las Vegas murders.

Other women also came forward to tell of Harris's abuse.

One former girlfriend was attacked on at least three occasions.

She told how she was ironing his shirt when he told her he loved her. When she refused to reciprocate, he held the hot iron to her face.

Pamela Weckerly, the prosecutor in that case, said: "He repeatedly dropped the iron, only to catch it just before it came into contact with her face.

"The iron was on and she could feel the heat radiating from it."

MONSTER SHOWS WIFE IN-LAWS' DEATH VIDEO

MURDER CHARGE:
Silva

Brute hubby beat OAPs to pulp

SLAIN:
Killer's in-laws

A MONSTER hubby took a video of his dead in-laws who he'd just beaten to death, then forced his wife watch it.

Guillermo Silva, 57, offered to keep an eye on wife Gabriela Lagos's elderly mother and father while she was out of town visiting relatives in her native Chile.

Lagos said Silva, who is now facing murder charges, menacingly told her to turn her camera on during a phone conversation.

"He said, 'turn the camera on, turn the camera on, I want to show you something', Gabriela told cops.

"He recorded videos for me, of my parents dead. I can't believe it. He's a monster, that he can do that to two older people."

She said her eldest son discovered the badly beaten bodies of her parents while dropping off money at their home in West Palm Beach, Florida.

Silva attacked the boy with a knife and threatened to kill him, police said.

But he fought back and managed to subdue Silva until Palm Beach County cops arrived at the grisly scene.

Gabriela's dad was found "laying on his back with severe blunt force trauma to his face", the sheriff's office said. Her mother was "positioned on the bed nude on her knees with severe blunt force trauma on her torso, arms and face".

Silva told cops he had been drinking on the day of the slayings and did not recall killing the couple.

Gabriela added: "They took him like a son. They gave him everything. I don't know why he did that. There's no explanation."

She added that her 11-year-old autistic adopted son was also in the home during the murders but was not injured.

By COLIN HURST

- later loaded a live round into a revolver, placed the gun against his girlfriend's head and pulled the trigger.

Mercifully, the bullet was in the wrong chamber on that occasion.

Another time, he punched her in the eye after she dared to tell him that he was too drunk to drive.

Fugitive

During his trial, which began in 2015, jurors heard how Harris fled Las Vegas after causing the car crash that killed three people.

And, in October 2015, a jury agreed.

Harris, who's now 32, was found guilty and the judge handed him the fugitive.

In video footage shot from another taxi, passengers can be heard saying: "They're shooting each other right there, see?"

The vehicles accelerate and then more shots are heard.

The passenger then yells: "Oh no! as a huge fireball erupts.

Prosecutor David Stanton said that Harris was solely responsible for the "premeditated, intentional and deliberate murder" of three people.

And, in October 2015, a jury agreed.

Harris, who's now 32, was found guilty and the judge handed him the death sentence, one which has since been upheld on appeal.

After the sentence Tehran Boldon, Michael's brother, sobbed: "We won today, but it's a bittersweet win.

"My heart hurts. I can't say any more. My heart hurts real bad.

"Still, no more Ammar Harris. That's it, it's a wrap. He's done, he's toast."

Prosecutor David Stanton summed up the feeling, saying: "What happened that night is not an aberration. It is consistent with who Ammar Harris is as an adult."

HE TORTURED HIS MUM TO DEATH

#HOT'N'HORNY

BUSTY blonde Stacey Robyn has favourite sex positions – but she's also into kinky, taboo ANAL bum fun.

The Barnet-born beauty says doggy-style tops her list, with missionary coming in a close second.

The stunna said: "I'm really into doggystyle. I have a big bum, so I would hope that the view is nice for the bloke! It also allows deeper penetration, which is really pleasurable especially when he has a large cock!

"It might sound boring but I'm also a fan of missionary, as I've had some of the best finishes that way!"

Stacey, who posed in kinky lingerie and flaunted her 32E norks, is also a lover of naughty bum fun. She added: "It really hits the spot for me."

ROBYN

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Space... what is really the point?

REMEMBER a few months ago when old, rich blokes were splurging their billions to take a 10-minute rocket ride to the edge of space?

It was all amazing and brilliant and described as "break-through" and "the dawn of a new era".

And then, when the billionaires had all stroked their selective beards or bald heads, it went quiet again.

But no-one else can afford to do it. The Bransons and Bezos and Musks might well have all the most exciting toys in the sandpit, but they found there's nobody else to play with.

Years ago, I almost got the chance to do something similar, although not in a spaceship.

Instead, the plan was to travel to Star City in Russia (seriously) and then fly up to the edge of space in an MiG fighter plane.

The cost was around £14,000 but because of the publicity it would get, they knocked it down to eight grand.

But then the newspaper's bean counters pricked their ears up, and despite being on megabucks for doing something at the business that even the brightest journalist would never be able to explain, said no.

So that was it. Another cracking exclusive down the pan.

Poo-splattered

Although certainly a pair of boxers saved from certain, poo-splattered destruction.

More recently than the bloody billionaires, there's been talk of the increasing chances of us being struck to death by falling bits of rubbish from old Chinese satellites.

Imagine?

You're sat outside slurping away in your local's beer garden, shooting the breeze, having a right laugh, and then... BAM!

The CCP Enterprise-in-Yellowbean-Sauce crashes onto your sunburnt head, killing you instantly, and probably damaging the geraniums, too, which means at least Greta Thunberg will care.

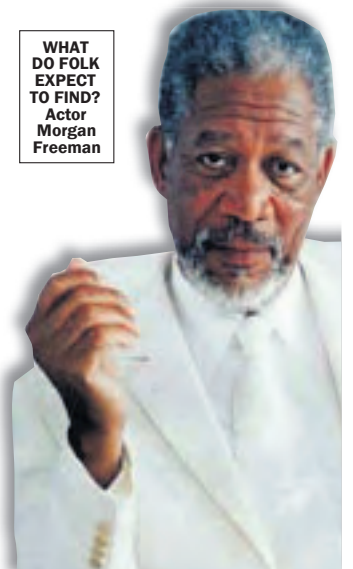

We're also told, as if we need to be told, that space is quite a scary place.

We've sent so much increasingly redundant crap up there – creaking, ageing satellites, etc – that the view just beyond our atmosphere is now starting to look like one of those beaches in India.

You know, the ones where little kids break up old oil tankers for our razor blades while wearing nothing but their brother's flip flops and a grunting paedophile.

But this constant desire to reach for

WHAT DO FOLK EXPECT TO FIND?
Actor Morgan Freeman

the stars never stops.

Despite the carnage we 100% know we're doing up there, as there are no exact rules in the place where no-one can hear you scream, on into the universe and beyond we go.

Last week it was everyone getting really excited about some James Webb telescope "images" – actually computer enhanced versions – of what the universe looked like billions of years ago.

God knows why. It looks like it always has done to me, but just in a slightly funkier, pin-sharp way.

And what are we doing this for, anyway?

What do we expect to find?

Gutted

I know I'd be gutted to travel to the very edge of the ever-expanding universe only to see it expand a bit further – a few more billion miles – before getting there.

It'd be like walking up Moel Famau as a kid, thinking you were near the top but never bloody were.

Besides, what do these people expect to find? God?

They're all MAD.

And it's a hell of a long way to go to find out that, like we all expected anyway, it's Morgan Freeman.

'It makes me horny

MY biggest turn on is to dominate in the bedroom.

I'm bisexual so I love to boss around a man or a woman, but especially a man.

I am really into burly, masculine Viking-esque guys and it makes me so horny to see a strong submissive fella under my control.

I love to dress up to look the part of a dominatrix. And my favourite outfit is my skin-tight latex catsuit which I wear with mega high heels and my long hair styled curly.

I'm a strong, confident woman who is used to getting her own way. My lover must agree to do exactly what I say, or he or she will be punished.

I have all the gear – whips, paddles, floggers, handcuffs and loads of different dildos and butt plugs.

So disobey me at your peril! I show no mercy.

Brother finally fingered after two-year coma

A WOMAN came out of a two-year coma to identify her own brother as the attacker that beat her unconscious.

Wanda Palmer, 51 (above), had been savagely bludgeoned in the head with either a machete or hatchet at her Cottageville, West Virginia, home in June 2020.

"When we got there, we thought she was dead," Jackson County Sheriff Ross Mellenger said.

Detectives had not been able to identify her assailant and were shocked when they got a call from Wanda's care facility last week saying she'd regained consciousness.

"We had a bit of an idea what happened, but the problem was with the nuts and bolts of the case we had nothing to go on," Mellenger added.

Despite suffering severe brain damage, Wanda could still communicate with detectives and told them her brother Daniel attacked her.

He's been charged with attempted murder and malicious wounding.

Gators ate OAP after she fell in golf club pond

AN investigation has been launched over an OAP woman killed by alligators on a golf course.

The pensioner lived near the course and was seen falling into a pond at the Boca Royale Golf and Country Club in Florida.

She struggled to get out of the pond before alligators attacked her and pulled her underneath the water's surface.

The Sarasota County Sheriff's Office and the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission have vowed to capture the alligators responsible for the woman's death as the investigation continues.

The woman's identity has not been revealed. Alligators have been found in increasingly unlikely places across the US this year.

MORNING GLORY: Josie (above) on telly this week and (below) on Big Brother

JOSIE Gibson was enjoying the warm weather of the Greek isles last week as she presented live from Crete on This Morning.

The Big Brother winner, 37, stripped down to a bikini as she spoke with hosts Dermot O'Leary and Alison Hammond while fronting a segment from the stunning island.

Josie had a drink in her hand as she promoted an ITV contest while soaking up the rays from a boat in the middle of the sea.

The star was dared to jump in

By BLAKE LEIGH
news@sundaysport.co.uk

the water by Alison and Dermot and, never one to pass up on a challenge, she happily did it.

It was Josie's final bit of work for the show before a holiday, although she won't be away from TV screens for too long as she is set to be one of several presenters to replace regular hosts Holly Willoughby and Phillip Schofield while they take a summer break for eight weeks.

Josie, who is always up for a laugh on the ITV daytime show, prepared for the jump by saying: "Right, I'm going to take my ears off and I'm going to join Paris for a little swim because I'm on the island of Crete and it would be rude not to."

Josie's always caught our eye, never more so than when revealing the busters she kept covered up on This Morning, and we got our first glimpse of them in the Big Brother house.

But we got a better look as Josie revealed her enhanced busters while she adjusted a pink bikini on a beach holiday.

One fan said: "I'd like to watch her take a plop!"

RUBBER-CLAD ODDBALL FLASHED ON THE BUS

POLICE are hunting a pierced, latex-clad flasher who exposed himself on a bus while wearing a wig.

A man in a black latex coat and red leather knee-high boots exposed himself to a conductor.

A spokesman for South Yorkshire Police said the perv also had a piercing running from his nose to his ear.

The suspect was reported to have got on a bus in Sheffield at around 5.50am on April 30.

It was reported to police that once on board, the suspect – believed to be in his 50s – exposed himself in front of the conductor before getting off the bus.

The force has also issued a CCTV image (right) of a man officers are keen to trace in connection with the incident.

A spokesman said: "It is reported that on April 30 at around 5.50am, the man boarded the 120 tram replacement bus service travelling between Hillsborough and Sheffield Interchange.

"Once on board the bus, the suspect exposed themselves in front of the conductor before getting off the bus in the town centre and walking in the direction of the train station."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I've been with my girl for six months and we enjoy great sex. We are into bondage and enjoy dressing up together.

A couple of months ago she suggested filming our kinky romps. I was totally turned on by the idea and we agreed to play our favourite sex game.

We set up a camera and she put on her sexiest leather outfit. She slowly stripped me off, tied me to the bed and pleased me with her hands and tongue.

She straddled my face and lowered her sopping wet fanny on to my lips and eager tongue.

She orgasmed three or four times, then plunged down hard on my eight-inch and rode me till I came.

But I've since found out that my girl has been showing the sex tape to her mates and I feel betrayed.

Should I dump her?

CT, North Yorkshire

Sam says...

STOP moaning and enjoy yourself!

Dear Sam,

I AM a 50-year-old woman. I am fairly attractive with big boobs, I have always managed to keep my body in tip-top condition and I still enjoy having sex with my husband.

In fact, we have a really active sex life. He's good in bed and bonks me at least three times a week, but he is the only man I have ever had sex with.

We have been together since we were 18, so I've only ever kissed other guys before I met him and I never followed the same path of some of my friends who liked to sleep around.

Now I want to explore a bit more and would really like to have a threesome with another guy.

The thought of having two cocks to play with at the same time makes my mound so moist!

But I don't want my hubby to feel like he is inadequate. How do I go about asking him?

FW, Wilts

Sam says...

EXPLAIN that you love him, but you feel like you need to try things you didn't when you were younger.

Lesbo lust shock turned into threesome ecstasy

Dear Sam,

MY girl and I have been together for a year and one evening last week changed my life.

I got home from work early to find my girlfriend's pal's car parked outside.

I climbed the stairs and heard gasps and moans coming from our bedroom, so I peered through a crack in the door.

I was gobsmacked to see the other woman's face buried between my girl's thighs.

They must have heard my sharp intake of breath and they turned towards me.

My girl had a look of shame on her face, but her pal calmly beckoned me in.

I undressed and lay beside them. Then they knelt either side of me and reached down to grasp my hard dick.

They kissed each other before her friend grasped my shaft and thrust me into my girl.

As I pounded away, her pal fingered her clit and fondled her breasts – and we came together.

Ten minutes later I was ready to go again and I gave it to her friend – doggy-style while she licked out my girl.

Her pal left in the early hours, but now my girl has asked if another horny friend can join us.

What should I do?

FT, Essex

Sam says...

IT'S every man's dream – lap this up while it lasts.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Watching mates pound missus got my sex life back on track

Dear Sam,

I'VE been married for 14 years but six months ago I went completely off shagging.

The missus is highly-sexed and it hit her very hard when I just couldn't get hard myself.

We tried all sorts to get me aroused – blue movies and porno books – but nothing did the trick.

Then I hit on the idea of her shagging one of my pals from down the boozery.

I asked her if she fancied it and, after much thought, she finally agreed as long as he was a handsome hunk.

Licking

I arranged for my mate to come round and I stayed downstairs watching TV while they went to the bedroom.

I could hear them having dirty fun – my mate has an eight-incher – and it was great to listen to the wife enjoying orgasm after orgasm again.

I was in the pub a few nights later when the guy who'd screwed the wife mentioned our arrangement and two of my other mates expressed an interest.

My wife was all for it, so the following Friday night, after we'd had a skinful, the four of us went back to my house.

I took them upstairs and they stripped off and piled into the bed with her. This time I decided to stick around and watch. There seemed to be erect cocks EVERYWHERE!

The missus sucked all three of them off in turn and they all took turns going down on her, licking and sucking her hot minge and rimming her rusty bullethole.

Then they each fked her in every hole and she had one shuddering climax after another.

At one point she was sucking on one dick while another pal was in her chuff and the third was prodding away round the back at her dirt-box.

It was at this point that I felt a stirring in my pants. I was overjoyed, so I stripped off and joined them.

My missus was delighted to see I was back in the game and she passionately urged me on to give her the best shag we've had for ages.

First, I lifted her legs high into the air and pounded into her as my pals cheered me on and worked away on her erect nipples at the same time.

Then I turned her onto her knees and rammed my rock-hard cock into her doggy-style as she screamed in delight.

Finally, I gave her bum a good pounding until I shot my load.

Since then I've managed to get loads of stiffies – but only after watching my mates giving the missus a shafting.

It's like I need my mates to give my cock a kick-start and after that I'm raring to go solo!

Incidentally, the wife thinks our arrangement is terrific. Are we being a bit odd?

GF, Leicester

Sam says...

AS long as everyone is happy, I don't see a problem.

Divorcee loves being banged in the woods

Dear Sam,

I'm a 44-year-old fella who is still very athletic and fit in the bedroom and, luckily, I consider myself to be pretty well-endowed.

I'm going out with a lovely woman, a 42-year-old divorcee with huge tits and a curvy arse.

She's excellent in the sack, great at blowjobs and willing to bang outdoors.

We often meet at weekends and take long walks in the woods, which always end up with me giving her one up against a tree.

Her daughter is 21 and she clearly takes after her mum. She's a gorgeous blonde with an equally big pair of boobs and she is constantly flirting with me when I'm round at their house.

Shaved

I get the feeling she's seen me and her mum on the job at some point and last week she sent me a cheeky white G-string, which she had obviously already worn, along with a note begging me to use my eight-inch cock in her shaved pussy.

She reckons she'd give me a tit-wank, blowjob and even accommodate me up her bum if I respond.

She is a very good-looking girl and I'd love to get my shaft up her.

But I'm having a great time with her mum. What do you think I should do?

DV, Kent

Sam says...

STEER well clear – you'd be asking for trouble if you got entangled with this scheming young woman.

Dear Sam,

I WAS best man at my mate's wedding and last week I bumped into his missus in the pub on her own and we ended up going back to my place.

We chatted about various things, but I could tell she was up for some sexy fun so I started to turn the chat towards more suggestive subjects.

It worked like a dream and it wasn't long before she had my cock in her mouth.

She sucked at it like a dog who hadn't seen a bone in decades and I returned the favour by lapping lovingly at her neatly-trimmed fanny. She loved that!

By that stage she was gagging for a good shafting, so I bent her over and knobbled her doggy-style on the couch.

That wasn't enough for this feisty minx, however. She sat me down and rode me reverse cowgirl-style while screaming out in ecstasy.

Then she demanded I spill my seed all over her tits and in her mouth. She, of course, rubbed the sticky mess into her skin.

She now wants to finish with my mate and see me, but I'm happy with my girlfriend.

What should I do?
CP, Cornwall

Sam says...

SOME mate you are. Leave this girl to your pal.

JUST look at the tats on this beauty!

Lovely Lauren took advantage of the hot weather to pose in the garden and show off her elaborate inkings and 32C busters.

Lauren says that her tattoos were done over three years and she loves fellas admiring them.

But her fave thing is catching the rays in her back yard.

The pert princess, from Hove, East Sussex, said: "It's great that my garden is not overlooked. I can strip off fully naked if I want to."

"Do you want to see my pussy? It's fully shaved, you know!"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDS FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of nosh as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

SAM JESSOP

BAR manager Jake Stevens wouldn't mind serving up a little something personal for glamour legend Sam Jessop.

Jake, 48, from Hove, reckons he'd make the perfect mix for 32C Brighton belle Sam.

He said: "I've worked behind the bar for years and I've been hoping I might catch a glimpse of Sam, but she's not showed up yet!"

"I'm happy to ogle her boobs in the Sport for now, but if she ever does turn up I'll have an extra special cocktail waiting for her!"

KIMBER DELICE

CHIEF Executive Carl Clark wants to splash his hard-earned cash on busty blonde Kimber Delice.

The 51-year-old bigwig hails from the Big Smoke, but there's only one girl he wants to spend his life of luxury with.

His dream girl is French fancy Kimber, from Paris, and with her 36D ample assets it's not hard to see why.

Carl said: "Kimber is simply stunning. I've got tons of cash and I still go out and buy the Sport three times a week to see if her knockers are in – there's no other girl's boobs I wanna stare at."

SPORT STARTS HERE WITH RACING

GLENEAGLES:
His daughter can score at Catterick

Rivals all have to eat his Dust

HEAT AND DUST can claim a topical victory in the Every Race Live On Racing TV Handicap at Catterick.

Following successive days of soaring temperatures across Britain, things are set to be a little cooler from Wednesday, which will be good news for all participants, both human and equine.

Heat And Dust has followed a familiar path for Sir Mark Prescott, beginning his racing career over shorter trips in maiden and novice company before being stepped up once tackling handicaps.

Unlike some, however, the rise in distance has been steady, with his performances over a mile and 10 furlongs nothing to write home about.

Runner

However, he has fared better since tackling a mile and a half – finishing second at Wolverhampton in the spring before breaking his duck with a dominant display on fast ground at Brighton last week.

Unsurprisingly, Prescott turns the four-year-old out quickly under a 5lb penalty in North Yorkshire and he is likely to take the world of beating as the trainer's only runner on the card.

Highland Mac can recoup the losses of her debut defeat

By MIKE FRANCIS

by landing the opening British Stallion Studs EBF Restricted Novice Stakes.

George Boughey is renowned for saddling juvenile winners at this stage and this daughter of Gleneagles was backed like defeat was out of the question at Bath, eventually going off the 1-3 favourite.

Odds-on backers ultimately had their fingers burnt, with Highland Mac beaten three-quarters of a length into third, but she might be straighter for the experience and is given another chance.

James Tate has his string firing on all cylinders and can add to his tally with Stylish Icon in the British Stallion Studs EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes at Leicester.

The Starspangledbanner filly shaped with promise in each of her three outings as a juvenile, with a sixth place on her Goodwood bow followed by placed efforts at Beverley and Catterick.

Her mark of 68 makes her the highest-rated runner in this field and there is every chance she can improve as a three-year-old.

The fact she has been off the track since October is not ideal, but the excellent form of the yard gives confidence the break will not be a major issue.

Ischia catches the eye in Lingfield's Sky Sports Racing Sky 415 Fillies' Handicap.

James Fanshawe's inmate did not show much in two starts last term, but was denied by just a short head on her return to action at Windsor last month.

The odds-on winner Love Trophy Power recently followed up comfortably on her handicap debut at Yarmouth from a perch of 71, so on the face of it Ischia would appear feasibly treated as she enters the handicap arena for the first time off a rating of 70.

Following

Rogue Rocket rates the best bet of the evening at Sandown as he bids to follow up a recent Salisbury verdict in the HWFA Williams Handicap.

The Tom Clover-trained three-year-old pretty much made a mockery of his opening handicap mark of 77 in Wiltshire and an 8lb hike might not be enough to prevent him following up.

On the all-weather at sunny Southwell, Profound Alexander appears to have been found a gilt-edged opportunity to open her account in the At The Races App Form Study Restricted Maiden Fillies' Stakes.

She looks a cracking chance for a winner.

NOT LONG NOW UNTIL THE NEW SEASON KICKS OFF

Lauren: No pain against Spain!

ENGLAND HAVE EVEN BEEN PRACTISING PENS SAYS ACE

LAUREN Hemp feels she is yet to hit top gear at Euro 2022 as England prepare for tonight's quarter-final against Spain.

The 21-year-old Man City winger, named PFA young player of the year in four of the last five seasons, went into this summer's tournament being widely tipped to light it up.

She started all three of England's group games as the Lionesses beat Austria 1-0 at Old Trafford, Norway 8-0 at the Amex Stadium and Northern Ireland 5-0 at St Mary's, notching one goal and one assist.

Hemp said: "I think it takes time.

"It's my first major tournament with England as well, and in front of so many fans, it's nerve-wracking, I'm not going to lie. I think it's just being consistent as well – it's something that I'm striving towards.

By ANDY MILLOM

"Personally I don't think you've seen the best of me yet, but there's still time.

"It's going to take a while and I still need to remember I'm still so young, I'm still learning every single day, and I'm taking it all in my stride really. I've got a great group of players around me who are supporting me."

Stars

Hempsays her "overriding feeling is excitement" with regard to the meeting with Spain, who are ranked a place above England at seventh in the world.

They lost star names to injury in Alexia Putellas and Jennifer Hermoso before finishing second in Group B, having beaten Finland 4-1, lost 2-0 to Germany and then won 1-0 against Denmark. Hemp said: "They're a great side, possession-based football, and we're ready for that and we've done all the preparation needed for it.

"It's going to be a massive challenge. But we know on our day we can beat anyone.

"I think it's important we go into the game with the same mindset. They are still a fantastic team, even though they are missing some key players."

England boss Sarina Wiegman did not attend the Northern Ireland match 1 after testing positive for coronavirus, and may well be absent again on Wednesday. On Monday she watched training from a distance with a mask on.

Hemp said: "Whether it's remotely or in person, she does the same thing, is still connected with the group. Whether she's on the pitch or there in the background, she'll have a massive influence in the game."

Experienced

Asked about the prospect of a penalty shoot-out, Hemp said: "We've definitely been practising pens, it's been an ongoing thing that we've done throughout the whole tournament and before.

"It's hard to replicate a game situation...but we've tried to replicate it as much as possible. I'd say we're a very experienced group as well, who've been involved in things like that, pressure situations.

"We've all been a part of big games in the past, so hopefully when it comes we won't be as nervous taking them."

HOTSHOT: Ellen White

White all right for women's football

By WES KIRBY

A RECORD-breaking Euros from Ellen White would boost the image of women's football, says former England star Kelly Smith.

White can match Wayne Rooney's 53-goal England record as early as tonight if she nets in the the quarter-final clash with Spain.

The Man City striker passed Smith's 46-goal tally in November to become the Lionesses' all-time top scorer and edged ever closer to Rooney's total with a brace in England's 8-0 rout of Norway.

Smith, who won 117 caps for England, was more than willing to wax lyrical about the Lionesses' lynchpin.

She said: "When Ellen beat my record I called her up the next day to congratulate her because I know how hard she works. I played with her, I know her as a person, she's very humble and down-to-earth.

"She's really worked and evolved our game over the last few years and she fully deserves the accolades. If she can reach Wayne Rooney's record that is just phenomenal.

"If she can put her name above him it just speaks volumes for where the women's game is at this moment and has come.

"To have a female footballer above Rooney will draw a lot of eyes to it because of the levels he reached for England, his class, his technique and his goal-scoring ability."

Two more goals for White would see her top either national team in 11-a-side football, though Smith's fellow National Football Museum Hall of Fame inductee David Clarke netted 128 for England's five-a-side blind football squad.

Smith has also been impressed with Beth Mead.

She said: "She looks like she's in the best headspace ever. "When Beth Mead is happy and playing angry she's at her best.

"She's delivered in every sense of the word playing in that England shirt this tournament."

BEN STOKES UP FIXTURES ROW

ENGLISH cricket is in turmoil after Test skipper Ben Stokes's one-day shocker.

The all-rounder – who won the 2019 World Cup for the Three Lions almost on his own – will only play red-ball and in T20 games for the rest of his career.

And Stokes has made it crystal clear that he blames the “unsustainable” schedule that players are struggling to keep up with as the game moves from a largely summer sport to one that takes place pretty much 365 days a year somewhere in the world.

In three years since Stokes' World Cup final heroics against New Zealand, the country's star all-rounder has played just nine more times in the 50-over format, due to injuries, a mental health break and workload management.

The 31-year-old turned out once more for a farewell appearance, at his home ground of Chester-le-Street against South Africa, before focusing on his Test captaincy and Twenty20 career.

He made it clear in a carefully worded statement – issued personally on his social media accounts then shared by his employers at the ECB – that England's exhausting fixture list has been a factor.

Tough

A born competitor, he has concluded that the demands currently being placed on the country's all-format players are becoming impossible to manage.

“This has been an incredibly tough decision to make. I have loved every minute of playing with my mates for England. We have had an incredible journey on the way,” he said.

“As hard as a decision as this was to come to, it's not as hard dealing with the fact I can't give my team-mates 100% of myself in this format any more. The England shirt deserves nothing less from anyone who wears it.

“Three formats are just unsustainable for me now. Not only do I feel that my body is letting me down because of the schedule and what is expected of us, but I also feel that I am taking the place of another player who can give Jos and the rest of the team their all.

“It's time for someone else to progress as a cricketer and make incredible memories like I have over the past 11 years.

“I have loved all 104 games I have played so far, I've got one more, and it feels amazing to be playing my last game at my home ground in Durham.

“I will give everything I have to Test cricket, and now, with this decision, I feel I can also give my total commitment to the T20 format.”

England have crammed seven Tests and 12 limited-overs internationals into their summer, coming off the back of a busy Ashes winter, and are due to leave for Pakistan – the first leg of an even busier touring programme – less than a week after their final home Test.

With that kind of calendar, Stokes' decision is a red flag for a format that is vulnerable following the abandonment of the Super League format and South Africa's cancellation of games against Australia.

Stokes has built an ODI CV of 2,919 runs, 74 wickets and 49 catches, with one last chance to add to those tallies, but his achievements will not be measured by bare numbers.

Crown

He debuted in 2011 as part of a side that had been left behind in one-day cricket and ended up as the fulcrum of Eoin Morgan's market-leading world champions eight years later. Morgan's England, with Stokes at its centre, became the measuring stick for every other nation to compare themselves against.

Now, neither Stokes nor Morgan will be there to defend their crown in India at next year's World Cup.

“I would like to wish Jos, the players and the support staff every success going forward.

“We have made great strides in white-ball cricket over seven years, and the future looks bright,” said Stokes.

“As always, the England fans have always been there for me and will continue to be there. You're the best fans in the world.”

Rob Key, supported the decision, adding: “I completely understand why he has reached this conclusion.

“I'm sure that when we look back on Ben's career and see this as one of the reasons he will play 120-plus Tests and help England in T20 matches and World Cups for many years to come.

“It is a typically selfless decision that will benefit England long-term.”

Tottenham snap up Spence from Boro

TOTTENHAM have signed defender Djed Spence from Middlesbrough on a contract until 2027.

Right-back Spence becomes the sixth player to join Spurs this summer to continue the club's spending spree.

The deal is worth an initial £12.5m but could rise to £20million due to add-ons.

Since Antonio Conte's side secured Champions League football on the final day of the 2021-22 campaign, Tottenham have changed tack in the transfer window and moved fast to put together a squad capable of challenging on multiple fronts.

The addition of Spence follows earlier moves for Ivan Perisic, Fraser Forster, Yves Bissouma, Richarlison and Clement Lenglet.

London-born Spence has long been on Spurs' radar and attracted interest after a successful loan with Nottingham Forest, where he helped the club achieve promotion to the Premier League and played a key role in their run to the FA Cup quarter-finals.

The 21-year-old came through Fulham's academy before moving to Middlesbrough in 2018 but saw his time on Teesside disrupted by the club's lack of managerial stability.

Spence was signed by Boro during Tony Pulis' tenure but earned his first consistent run under the stewardship of ex-Tottenham centre-back Jonathan Woodgate, who would be sacked after a year in the summer of 2020.

Next manager Neil Warnock used the versatile defender regularly during the 2020-21 campaign but let him move on and sign for Forest on a temporary basis.

Spence's form at the City Ground earned him England Under-21 recognition in March and he made 46 appearances, scoring three goals to help his loan club go up via the Sky Bet Championship play-offs in May.

While Forest were among the sides interested in the youngster, he has sealed a move to Tottenham with old team Middlesbrough making a handsome profit.

ERIK NEEDS HIS TOP SCORING STRIKER

TEN HAG: DON'T GO RONALDO

United boss issues plea to club legend he still wants to build a team around

ERIK Ten Hag can't wait to work with Cristiano Ronaldo and is so determined to restore Manchester United to glory.

The nine years since Sir Alex Ferguson retired have featured more downs than ups at Old Trafford, where the Dutchman has become the sixth manager to take the hotseat since the Scot retired as champion.

United have not launched a sustained Premier League title bid since then and former Ajax boss Ten Hag is relishing the challenge of getting the 20-time champions fighting for major honours again.

"Manchester United is a big name," the Dutchman said. "It's a real challenge to get them again restored to where they belong. I am highly motivated to get that done."

"We want to win every game and it doesn't matter who the opponent is, I think that belongs to the status of Manchester United and that is what we will do. That will be the demand of the squad and of every player."

United have not won silverware since 2017 and Ten Hag takes over at a time when there is fan anger against the owners.

Furious with the debt, dividends and perceived mismanagement, thousands of supporters protested against the Glazer family during the final home matches of last season.

Asked if he had sought any assurance from the owners and spoken to the Glazer family, United boss Ten Hag said: "Yes, I have spoken with them."

"They told me they want to get success and that it is the only thing they want. That is what they expect from me, to bring the success."

Ten Hag sees frustrated star

Ronaldo as an important part of that quest for glory.

The 37-year-old made a shock return to Old Trafford last summer but an impressive campaign on an individual level could not stop the Red Devils slumping home in sixth.

This season's lack of Champions League football has not sat well with Ronaldo, who has asked to be allowed to leave if an acceptable offer arrived.

Pressing

A family issue meant he has missed United's pre-season tour of Thailand and Australia, but Ten Hag has again underlined that Ronaldo is in his vision for the season ahead.

"It is clear – he is not for sale," he said. "I planned with having him and I am looking forward to working with him."

"But for the rest I cannot say anymore because the situation is still the same as last week."

It will be interesting to see how

Ronaldo fits into Ten Hag's pressing style, so too the squad's ability to adapt to that approach after interim boss Ralf Rangnick struggled to implement it last season.

"I cannot talk about what is in the past," the meticulous and demanding Dutchman said.

"I know only that I have my ideas, how I bring structure in a team and I do it in every topic of football."

"For me, pressing is an important factor. If you want to have initiative in a game I think it's necessary."

"If you do that in a high block or in a low block, that is a tactic that can be both ways."

"I prefer to do it in a high way, in high pressing, but it will not always be the case."

"There's also situations, games that you are lower. But what I demand from my team is that they press."

Another key part of Ten Hag's plan revolves around the midfield

ER TO STAY AT OLD TRAFFORD

STAY AND PLAY: Ten Hag is desperate for Ronaldo to remain at Old Trafford approach. The pursuit of Barcelona's Frenkie de Jong is well documented and the manager believes United need to develop such a player.

"I think we have good midfield players," Ten Hag said. "With the signing of Christian Eriksen, he will strengthen the midfield."

"But that type of player what you describe I think it's necessary in the squad. Of course we have players who can fill it in and we will do it if we cannot find the right player. Then we'll develop a player in the position."

Denmark international Eriksen signed a three-year deal on Friday, becoming United's second summer signing after left-back Tyrell Malacia's arrival from Feyenoord.

Lisandro Martinez is set to become the next acquisition, with Ajax announcing they were selling the defender for an initial 57.37 million euros (£48.8m) plus 10m euros (£8.5m) in potential add-ons.

"I think Christian Eriksen brings the creativity in the squad and he will play in the offensive midfield," Ten Hag said.

"He can, I think, also play in a lower position. I think he is really experienced, experienced from different leagues - Italy, Holland and especially I think England."

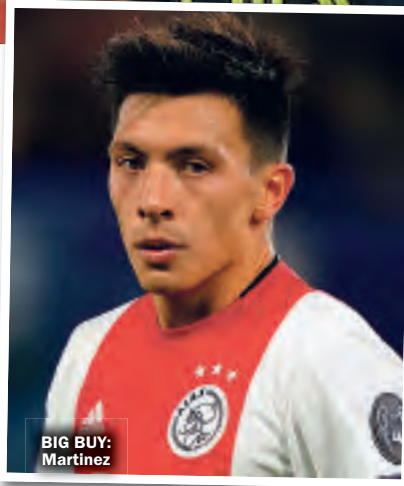

"So, he will bring a lot to the team in that fact and our way in possession but I think also out of possession."

"Martinez, that's a player who I call a warrior. He will bring aggressiveness and it's a South American character. He will contribute to the team and I think the fans will love it."

Ten Hag is excited to work with Martinez again and has no doubt that 5ft 9in centre-back will handle the Premier League's physicality.

"He is a strong guy and duels is one of his capabilities," he added.

"And also his motivation is really high and he will bring that motivation also in the team."

SPURS DE UP PAY

TOTTENHAM are closing in on a deal for Memphis Depay.

The former Man United forward is no longer wanted by Barcelona.

The Catalan giants are trying to trim their wage bill after signing Raphinha from Leeds and Bayern Munich's Robert Lewandowski.

Tottenham have been told they could buy the Dutchman for as little as £14m. And his wage demands of around £80,000 are reasonable in the current Premier League market.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Depay has been told his first-team chances will be limited this season to try to force him out of the Nou Camp.

The 28-year-old scored just seven times in 53 outings for Manchester United over three up and down seasons.

He has done better at Barca with 13 in 37.
